1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 through 3, 5 through 10 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Masui (cited by applicant).

See Figures 1, 3 and 4. See also column 2 line 10 through column 3 line 12.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Masui in view of Loppnow et al.

Masui as interpreted above in paragraph 2 teaches everything except the specific folding of the top sheet.

Loppnow et al teaches a manner of folding interfolded sheets for dispensing (see Fig. 1) where the top sheet has a first end 38 which is folded upon itself at least twice (at 28 and 36).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art that the interfolded stack in Masui be comprised of the stack taught by Loppnow et al which clearly illustrates at least one way sheets may be interfolded for dispensing. This is considered the substitution of one interfolded sheet stack for another.

5. Claims 11 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Masui in view of Pierson et al.

Masui as interpreted above in paragraph 2 teaches everything except the dispensing container is in the shape of a square box and is made of paperboard. Pierson et al teaches such a dispensing box may be in the shape of a square box (cubical) and be made of paperboard (cardboard). See column 2 line 68 through column 3 line 1.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to construct the box of Masui in the shape of a square box (cubical) and of paperboard (cardboard) in light of the teachings in Pierson et al that such boxes can be so constructed.

6. Claims 14 through 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Masui in view of McCarthy.

Masui as interpreted above in paragraph 2 teaches everything except the dispensing container is made of a polymer and the sheets dispensed comprise wet-wipes.

McCarthy teaches that such dispensing containers can be constructed of various materials including a polymer (plastic). See column 5 lines 10-17. Further, McCarthy teaches the sheets to be dispensed can be wet-wipes (pre-moistened sheets). See column 5 lines 4-9.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to construct the container of Masui from a polymer and employ it to dispense wet-wipes as taught by McCarthy.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 27 June 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant has argued that Masui fails to teach that the removable panel is attached to the top sheet in the stack such that, when the removable panel is removed and separated from the dispensing container, the top sheet is partially pulled through the opening of the dispensing container. It is the examiner's position that when the panel of Masui is removed and separated from the container the top sheet is partially remove from the container until such time that the remainder of the sheet is pulled through the opening and as such Masui meets the limitation of the claim.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
